there can be no lack of a market and price be good. A little enterprise will make a great fruit country. We hope to see our group the new opportunities.

Major Chapman never will "get over" his might as well "step down and out" than another. No matter what suppletry heaping may employ—they may satisfy the fact that he acted "honorable," but never—since the public. The report of his infirm spread far and wide. Newspapers from Sri Lanka to Savannah are talking about it.

So we are going to have an "Investment" None is really needed, since Chapman is admitted the genuineness of the publisher's trait. Perhaps that was the reason why tempted to rule the whole thing to be out.
